We are pleased to announce that the Reform Pension Board (RPB) is once again offering a two-day retirement planning seminar to our participants and their spouses/partners. The seminar provides important tools and strategies to assist attendees in beginning to prepare for the financial and personal choices that need to be made in working towards a dignified retirement. Attendance is limited to RPB pension plan participants and their spouses/partners. Please note that it is highly recommended that spouses/partners attend the seminar in order to fully benefit from the seminar.

Attend the seminar to learn:

- Financial retirement planning strategies from money management experts
- Information on how to make a smooth emotional transition to retirement from a specialist on the psychological aspects of aging, employment and retirement
- Specific details regarding the Reform Pension Plan during one-on-one consultations with Reform Pension Board representatives
- Strategies on negotiating your retirement contract
- Facts on Social Security benefits in retirement
- Information from your colleagues during informal networking opportunities

Time: Sunday afternoon, April 29th through Tuesday, mid-afternoon, May 1st.

Place: Chicago area hotel to be announced.

Cost: Nominal registration fee of $36 per person ($72 for a couple).
The Reform Pension Board is underwriting all of the speakers and materials related to the seminar and many of the meals.
Participants are responsible for their own transportation and hotel expenses.

Registration forms will be available towards the end of the year, and we will provide additional details on the seminar program at that time as well.

Thank you for saving the date for the RPB Retirement Planning Seminar. We are looking forward to seeing you and your spouse/partner there!
